

X AND BEYOND

SCREENINGS

“Katrina Documentary Marathon”

Tuesday November 10, 2015

10 am - 6 pm

X AND BEYOND invites you to a day of critical reflection on Hurricane Katrina and its effects on the city of New Orleans. We will screen a series of acclaimed documentaries that engage with the disaster. The set-up is informal and improvised discussion during the screenings is encouraged.

“Katrina Documentary Marathon” anticipate the screening of Sundance winner Trouble the Water (2008) at CPH:DOX 2015 on Sunday November 15. There curator Jacob Lillemose will join Tilde Siglev to talk about the film and other documentaries on Katrina. See the festival program for details.

10 am - 3 pm: When the Levees Broke: A Requiem in Four Parts (2006) by Spike Lee.

3 pm - 4 pm: The Right to Return (2007) by Johnathan Demme

4 pm - 5.15 pm: Kamp Katrina (2009) by David Redmon and Ashley Sabin

5.15 pm - 6.00 pm: Hurricane on the Bayou (2006) by Greg MacGillivray

The screenings are free and there will be coffee/tea and cake throughout the day. So drop by for an in-depth look at the disaster that as a CNN show recently said “never stopped”.
